E. The Seller shall include this article, suitably modified to identify the parties, in all lower tier contracts and awards, regardless of tier, for experimental, developmental or research work.

Foreign Access to Technology (from Article 23 of prime contract)

A. Definitions.

"Foreign firm or institution" means a firm or institution organized or existing under the laws of a country other than the United States, its territories, or possessions. The term includes, for purposes of this purchase contract, any agency or instrumentality of a foreign government; and firms, institutions or business organizations that are owned or substantially controlled by foreign governments, firms, institutions, or individuals.

"Know-how" means all information including, but not limited to, discoveries, formulas, materials, inventions, processes, ideas, approaches, concepts, techniques, methods, software, programs, documentation, procedures, firmware, hardware, technical data, specifications, devices, apparatus and machines.

"Technology" means discoveries, innovations, know-how and inventions, whether patentable or not, including computer software, recognized under U.S. law as intellectual creations to which rights of ownership accrue, including, but not limited to, patents, trade secrets, mask works, and copyrights developed under this purchase contract.

B. General. The parties agree that research findings and technology developments in Extremely Low Power Wireless Smart Sensor Module technology may constitute a significant enhancement to the national defense, and to the economic vitality of the United States. Accordingly, access to important technology developments under this purchase contract by foreign firms or institutions must be carefully controlled. The controls contemplated in this article are in addition to, and are not intended to change or supersede, the provisions of the International Traffic in Arms Regulation (22 CFR pt. 120 et seq.), the DOD Industrial Security Regulation (DOD 5220.22-R) and the Department of Commerce Export Regulation (15 CFR pt. 770 et seq.).

C. Restrictions on Sale or Transfer of Technology to Foreign Firms or Institutions.

1. In order to promote the national security interests of the United States and to effectuate the policies that underlie the regulations cited above, the procedures stated in subparagraphs C.2, C.3, and C.4 below shall apply to any transfer of technology. For purposes of this paragraph, a transfer includes a sale of the company, and sales of licensing of technology. Transfers do not include:

- a. sales of products or components, or
  - b. licenses of software or documentation related to sales of products or components, or
  - c. transfer to foreign subsidiaries of the Seller for purposes related to this purchase contract, or
  - d. transfer which provides access to technology to a foreign firm or institution which is an approved source of supply or source for the conduct of research under this purchase contract provided that such transfer shall be limited to that necessary to allow the firm or institution to perform its approved role under this purchase contract.

2. The Seller shall provide timely notice to the Government of any proposed transfer from the Seller of technology developed under this purchase contract to foreign firms or institutions. If the Government determines that the transfer may have adverse consequences to the national security interests of the United States, the Seller, its vendors, and the Government shall jointly endeavor to find alternatives to the proposed transfer which obviate or mitigate potential adverse consequences of the transfer but which provide substantially equivalent benefits to the Seller.

3. In any event, the Seller shall provide written notice to the Government program manager of any proposed transfer to a foreign firm or institution at least sixty (60) days prior to the proposed date of transfer. Such notice shall cite this article and shall state specifically what is to be transferred and the general terms of the transfer. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Seller's written notification, the Government program manager shall advise the Seller whether the Government consents to the proposed transfer. In cases where the Government does not concur or sixty (60) days after receipt and the Government provides no decision, the Seller may utilize the procedures under the "Disputes" clause. No transfer shall take place until a decision is rendered.

4. Except as provided in subparagraph C.1 above and in the event the transfer of technology to foreign firms or institutions is not approved by the Government, but the transfer of made nonetheless, the Seller shall (a) refund to the Government the funds paid for the development of the technology and (b) negotiate a license with the Government to the technology under terms that are reasonable under the circumstances.

D. Lower Tier Agreements. The Seller shall include this article, suitable modified, to identify the parties, in all subcontracts or lower tier agreements, regardless of tier, for experimental, developmental, or research work.

E. This article shall remain in effect during the term of the purchase contract and for five (5) years thereafter.
